

Biltmore Estates

Biltmore Christmas

7 Days | December 1-7, 2017 | Only $850*

Departs: Sioux City, Fort Dodge, Eagle Grove, & Des Moines

Highlights Included:

“My Old Kentucky Home” - Visit Judge John Rowan’s mansion plantation home located in Bardstown, KY.

Blount Mansion - Known as the birth-place of the state of Tennessee.

Biltmore - It’s Christmas at America’s largest home. Let the splendor of the season, a 35-foot Christmas tree and miles of festive décor take you back to when you believed in wonder-lands. In 1898, George Vanderbilt met a brilliant organ maker named Ernest Skinner. Now triumphant organ music fills the grand Banquet Hall.

Deer Park Luncheon - Enjoy a group luncheon within the Biltmore Estate. Learn about the wine making process. Hear the history of Biltmore wine while wandering through the cellars. Sample the wine and toast to the holiday season.

Antler Hill Village - The scene elicits a vintage feel with illuminated trees, garlands and wreaths.

Conservatory - Stop by for eye-popping color and floral displays.

Biltmore Village - Visit more than 40 unique shops, 10 cafes and restaurants. The tree lined streets, brick sidewalks and period architecture make it a delight.

Evening at Biltmore - In the evening visit the landscape bathed in thousands of twinkling lights. Everything in the Biltmore glows with candle light.

Asheville Tour - Brought to you by a knowledgeable guide. Then browse through more than 200 shops, 30 art galleries and a dozen antique stores. Stop by one of 50 restaurants or coffee shops for lunch.

Market Square - Browse the shops and watch the Festival of Lights parade.

Belmont Mansion - Located in Nashville, it’s beautiful in its Christmas splendor.

The sights & sounds of the Biltmore Estates at Christmas will fill you with amazement & wonder. You’ll feel like a kid again as you explore the house, gardens, winery & village. Around every corner is a new and wondrous site to behold.
